Projects

Canal - A full-stack website that is a clone of Amazon with search, products, navigation, cart, and review functionality   Live Site | GitHub
Ruby on Rails, React, Redux, JavaScript, HTML5, CSS3, PostgreSQL, Webpack, AWS
- Developed product list and view pages featuring dynamic filtering by category, 'all' options, and a search function. Leveraged Amazon s3 to store product images and utilized Rails backend to seed product data.
- Implemented authentication and authorization using OAuth libraries, used session tokens to identify session instances, and used an encryption library called Bcrypt to encrypt passwords.
- Designed a flawless review page with pixel-perfect precision, while also implementing robust CRUD functionality.
- Employed React's state management to seamlessly track the cart across pages, enabling dynamic updates and modifications with comprehensive CRUD functionality.

LovArt - A MERN stack social media website that allows users to post and share their art   Live Site | GitHub
Mongoose, Express, Redux, React, AWS S3, MongoDB, Node.js
- Led a cohesive team through efficient feature implementation, enhanced by communication through Slack and productive standups.
- Developed a robust and scalable server-side application using Express.js, harnessing its advanced routing and middleware functionalities to manage HTTP requests, built RESTful APIs, and integrated MongoDB with Mongoose for efficient data storage and management.
- Designed and implemented user authentication using Passport.js, integrating local and JWT strategies for secure logins, sign-ups, and protected route access.
- Developed a responsive single-page application utilizing React state management for seamless updates, featuring comprehensive CRUD functionality for posts and comments, enabling real-time page interactions.

Performance Playbook - A website to visualize NFL fantasy football statistics, enabling users to compare fantasy points.
JavaScript, HTML5, CSS3, Webpack, Figma, D3   Live Site | GitHub
- Used Fantasy Football Data Pros API, along with D3 API to fetch and visualize player statistics, enabling comparative data between current player and top player at that position.
- Developed this project from ideation to completion using wireframes for a project layout.
- Empowered by JavaScript DOM manipulation, I facilitated user-driven player filtering based on position, week, and search functionality.
- Enabling seamless interaction, users can click on a player's name to access comprehensive statistics, team information, player image, and a D3 graph that contrasts their performance against the top player at their position.
